The International Institute for Consciousness Exploration and Psychotherapy (IIBP) invites you to participate in a 4 ½ year long training in Transpersonal Psychotherapy. Two trainers will accompany the students through the whole process. Other trainers will be there repeatedly to create a continuity in content. The whole formation will provide you with a broad base of all major aspects of this therapeutic approach, which combines a profound spiritual understanding of being grounded in daily life with a very practical methodology to guide a person through a transpersonal healing process.

The training is designed for people who wish to apply the learned knowledge in their own work as well as for those who want to use it for a deep exploration and transformation of their own self. All trainers lead transpersonal schools in their respective countries or have long years of experience in this field of psychotherapy.

At the end of the training, the IIBP will issue a certificate in Transpersonal Psychotherapy in accordance with the criteria of the European Transpersonal Association (EUROTAS).
